BERKSHIRE SODA SPRING HOTEL.—THE PROprietor of this establishment respectfully announces to the public that be intends opening his buse for the recoption of summer boarders by the 15th of this month, and that in order to make it an inducement for families to come to the country early in the season, be has resolved to reduce his prices to such to the lowest possible rates—eay from $5 to $10 per week, or an average of about $7, according to rooms. The house has just been completed and newly furnished, and will accommodate about seventy-five persons. The situation of the hotel is one of the most desirable on the American Continent, being among the mountains of Berkshire, within three miles of the beautiful village of Great Barrington, where pure air and picturesque scenery combine to attract the lovers of nature, and contribute so much to good health. The properties of the water of this unique spring have long been known to a few scientifio men, out have not been made available to the mass of the better class of sciety until quite recently—merely for the want of proper hotel accommodations. Carriages will run daily from the deport in Great Barrington to the Spring. Icetera addressed to ANDREW J. BALDWIN, Proprietor of the Berkshire Sods Spring, Great Barrington, Mass.

COLLINS HOTEL, FOOT OF CANAL STREET, FRONTing the North river, will let a few pariors and single rooms on reasonable terms; the location is a desirable one for summer, having a sea breeze from the bay and harbor, and a fall view.
